DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:

- I. A composition comprising a liquid fatty phase and polymer particles dispersed in the fatty phase (Claims 1-27, 31-44, 51-64).
- II. A composition comprising a liquid fatty phase and polymer particles dispersed in the fatty phase, where the particles are surface stabilized. (Claims 28-30).
- III. A composition comprising a liquid fatty phase and polymer particles dispersed in the fatty phase, where the composition comprises a gelling agent (claims 45-50).

The species are independent or distinct because a composition comprising surface stabilized polymer is structurally and functionally different from that without a stabilized particle. Similarly, the inclusion of a gelling agent in the composition renders the composition to form a gel as opposed to a composition without a gelling agent and hence different. In each of the above species and sub-species, a search for one species or sub-species does not necessarily encompass a search for the other species and sub-species. Accordingly, the requirement for election of species is proper.

Art Unit: 1615

Further, upon electing a single species from the above, applicants are required to elect single sub-species from the list of polymer that constitutes the polymer particles (The different types of polymers listed in claim 23).

Polyurethanes

Polyurethane-acrylics,

Polyureas,

Polyureas-polyurethanes,

Polyester-polyurethanes;

Polyether-polyurethanes,

Polyesters,

Polyester amides,

Fatty-chain polyesters,

Alkyds;

Acrylic polymers

Vinyl polymers

Acrylic-vinyl copolymers

Acrylic-silicone copolymers;

Polyacrylamides;

Silicone polymers and

Fluoro polymers.

Each of the polymers listed in claim 23 is different from one another because the polymers have different chemical structure and hence different property.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 1, 59, 60, 63 and 64 are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species.

MPEP § 809.02(a).

Art Unit: 1615

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
